Getting to Know Each Other

BINGO

Introduce yourself to a fellow classmate, and ask them a question from the BINGO card below. If their answer is "YES," write that student's name in that square. You can only use each classmate once and don't forget to cross out the square with my face.

HOW TO WIN: Fill 5 squares in a row. ↔ Across, ↕ Up and Down, or ✕ Diagonally!

Do you have a dog?	Have you visited another country?	Are you in the English club?	Is your birthday this month?	Can you play baseball?
Do you want to go to University?	Do you like Disney Land?	Have you ever been to Tokyo?	Can you play soccer?	Do you like school?
Is your birthday in the summer?	Can you play an instrument?		Are you a boy?	Do you know how to speak English?
Are you a girl?	Did you walk to school?	Do you like Matthew sensei?	Did you play in the sports festival?	Do you like to dance?
Do you like to read?	Are you in the music club?	Do you like eating hamburgers?	Do you know how to swim?	Do you like eating nato?

BINGO example script:

ALT: Hello, my name is Matthew, it's nice to meet you.

JTE: My name is _____, it's nice to meet you too.

ALT: "Do you like eating hamburgers, _____?"

JTE: Yes, thank you for asking.

ALT: (respond with another sentence about the question)
Me too, I love hamburgers with catsup.

OR, if the JTE's answer is no, say, "NO, I'm sorry."

(And then the ALT will write the JTE's name in the square and move on.)
