The Pronunciation Game: Lead Sheet

Rules: Have students form teams of 2 or 3. The teacher will call a series of word pairs. The cross-section of each word pair will lead to another word in the chart. Those words form questions. The first team to raise their hand and correctly say the question and answer it wins. The following are scripted questions and their word-pairs. (This may be very difficult, so teams are suggested. Try to enlarge the game board if possible.)
